- WMCC 1994-1995 -

Things got off to a slow start in 1994 for the West Michigan Corvair Club. Rob Van Sledright started off the year as president but elections were not held until April. When the elections were held, John Cole was elected president. The monthly meetings were moved to the Pizza Hut on the corner of 44th St. and Kalamazoo. Some club activities included an excursion to a Whitecaps game, a picnic at Pinery Park, and the fall color tour. Parade participation included the Kalamazoo Wine Festival Parade, Grand Haven Coast Guard Parade, and the Muskegon Festival Parade. The club parts trailer was sold and the year concluded with a Christmas party at Brann's.

John Cole was re-elected president for 1995. Once again the club attended a Whitecaps game and there was a summer picnic at Charlton Park in Hastings and a fall picnic at Townsend Park. The parade circuit included the Festival Parade and the Grand Haven Coast Guard parade, which were not well attended by the club. There was also a Valentine's dance in association with the West Michigan Pontiac Club. Another activity was a trip down to Gary Gruetzmacher's garage in Bangor for a picnic and tech session. The annual Christmas party was held at Kentwood Station.
